MRS. PHILIP WAYNE RICE

Hudson, Rice are wed

The marriage of Miss Patricia Lloyd Hudson to Mr. Philip Wayne Rice took place Friday evening, August 14, 1981, at seven o'clock at Liberty Baptist Church before an altar of palms, baskets of white gladiolus, pom pons and purple mums, and candelabras.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lloyd Hudson of Appomattox. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Rice, Jr. of Pamplin.

The Reverend David R. Drinkard, associate pastor of Fort Hill United Methodist Church of Lynchburg, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

A program of contemporary music was provided by Mrs. James Crawford at the piano; Mr. Frank Coffey, flutist; and Miss Susan Eye, guitarist. Mrs. Crawford and Mr. David Eye sang "Devoted to You" and "Always". The wedding music included "Annie's Song", "The Wedding Song" and "Just The Way You Are".

The bride was escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents. She wore a gown fashioned of white Renaissance lace over taffeta. The basque bodice was finished with an off-shoulder neckline which was trimmed with a ruffle of lace. Tiered lace trimmed the floor length skirt of her gown. She wore a Renaissance lace hat banded with white satin ribbon and carried a colonial bouquet of white silk roses, yellow tea roses, violets and baby's breath. She wore an heirloom cameo, a gift from her grandmother, Mrs. Gladys P. Johnson, for her wedding.

Miss Debra Ann Smith of Lynchburg was maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of yellow tea roses and violets on a background of lavender eyelet fashioned to compliment the bride's gown. Other attendants were Mrs. Joseph Taylor of Glen Allen, Mrs. E. Bruce Williams of Pamplin and Mrs. Kevin Collins and Mrs. John R. Cole, both of Appomattox. Their gowns were fashioned like that of the honor attendant but were of yellow tea roses and violets on a background of white eyelet. All the attendants carried nosegays of silk violets, yellow tea roses and baby's breath, complimenting their dresses.

Mr. Rice was best man for his son and ushers were E. Bruce Williams of Pamplin, David B. Gillian of Hixburg, and Randy Williams and Hal Smith, both of Lynchburg.

The bride's mother wore a street length dress of blue crepe de sheen and wore a shoulder corsage of cream cymbedium orchids.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Gladys P. Johnson, wore a white and blue sheer floral street length dress with a corsage of cream cymbedium orchids.

The groom's mother wore a street length dress of navy and white crepe. She wore a shoulder corsage of cream cymbedium orchids.

Mrs. Kenneth E. Coleman of Appomattox, aunt of the bride, served as mistress of ceremonies. Guests were registered at the bride's book by Miss Beth Ann Lawson of Appomattox.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall. Serving at the Cameo wedding cake were Mrs. Robert Montgomery of Annandale, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. J. Robert Jamerson of Appomattox. Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. J. Ralph Coleman of Lynchburg and Mrs. W. Lloyd Vaughan of Appomattox. Mrs. Betty Jo Smith of Appomattox assisted at the refreshment table and Mrs. David Gilliam was at the rice tree.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox County High School and was graduated from Longwood College. She is employed by the Appomattox County School Board.

The groom is a graduate of Appomattox County High School and was graduated from Bluefield College. He is employed by Norfolk and Western Railway.

After a wedding trip to Colonial Williamsburg, Mr. and Mrs. Rice will make their home in Pamplin.

Mrs. Henry Alvin White III

Carter, White are wed

The marriage of Miss Kimberly Dawn Carter to Mr. Henry Alvin White III was solomnized on Saturday, July 25 at two o'clock in the afternoon at the home of the bride's parents.

The Reverend J. N. Williams, pastor of Gladstone Memorial Baptist Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar of magnolia, fern, palms, and arrangements of fresh flowers in white and varying shades of pink. Candelabra with pink candles flanked the altar.

Mrs. Alice Burke was pianist; Mrs. Ann Reynolds, soloist, sang, "You Light Up My Life" and "O Promise Me."

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Christian Carter of Gladstone. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. Henry Alvin White Jr. of Appomattox and Mrs. Richard Gunter of Gladstone.

The bride, escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents, wore a floor-length gown of off-white accented with pink roses. Fashioned with a square neckline, a fitted bodice, the A-line skirt was designed with fullness in back. The sleeves, puffed at the shoulders, tapered to fitted cuffs at the wrist. She carried a bouquet of white silk flowers enhanced with ribbons tied in love knots. She wore a single strand of pearls and pearl earrings; she wore matching flowers in her hair.

Miss Susan Wood, of Piney River, was maid of honor. She wore a pink floor-length gown and carried a bouquet of white daisies and baby's breath. Her picture hat was accented with daisies.

Jerry White, of Appomattox, brother of the groom, was best man.

The bride's mother chose a solid, hot pink, floor length gown over which she wore a sheer printed capelet. She wore a wrist corsage of mint green carnations and baby's breath.

The mother of the groom wore a blue, floor length gown and wore a shoulder corsage of pink carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Carter entertained with a reception.

A sheer pale pink lace cloth over a deeper shade of pink with an arrangement of pink roses, and baby's breath carried out the color scheme of green, pink and white in the dining room. Pink candles completed the table decorations.

Patty Cyrus of Appomattox, sister of the groom, presided at the bridal register.

Tammy White, of Appomattox, sister of the groom, served the wedding cake and Lisa White also sister of the groom, served the wedding punch.

Johnny White of Appomattox and Zane Summers of Gladstone gave wedding scrolls to the guests.

Following a Southern wedding trip the couple will reside in Lynchburg.
